Hero Dead of Two Wars to be Honored Tuesday

Grain Elevator Construction to Begin Monday

Construction of a large grain elevator of 150,000 bushel storage capacity will be started by the Moore Grain Company Monday with the Chalmers-Borton Contractors of Hutchinson, Kansas doing the work. B. Moore Jr. will supervise the project for the grain company.

A cluster of six concrete and steel circular tanks surrounding other storage space, provides a total of 17 bins and this part will reach 23 feet in height. The elevator will extend another 30 feet. This elevator will provide farmers this area with storage space for wheat, maize and other grain crops. Chalmers-Borton firm specializes in this type of construction work. The problem facing Moore and the contractors at present is the securing of adequate housing for the workers, which will number about 25, with about four or five additional furnished apartments and others desiring bedrooms. An advertisement for the Hamlin Chamber of Commerce is carried in this issue. The Herald asking for information for rooms or apartments.

The new elevator will be located on property east of the Co-Operation between Stamford highway and the Santa Fe freight terminal.

McCaulley Team Continues Wins; Total Now 15

Those fighting McCaulley Eagles etched their winnings to 15 a total by knocking over the St. Joe Academy team, of Abilene, by a score of 24-13.

Pass from Gibson to Fought reared in the Eagles first touchdown. Try for extra point was good. A few minutes later, the Saints team scored on a long pass. The try for extra point was good. The Eagles behind their opponent for the first time this season with the half ending 7-6 favor the Academy.

In the third quarter, Saint Joseph on another long pass, notched the extra point. Gibson the kickoff and with good timing sped all the way to pay. Again the try for extra point void. In the fading minutes of the third quarter, Waldrop picked a blocked punt and went across goal line standing up. Try for extra point was blocked.

In the fourth quarter, the Eagles led the game by a pass from Kins to J. Lawis, which resulted in a 40-yard pass by Lawis to the Saints.

When the whistle blew ending the game, the Saint Joseph team was on two-yard line threatening a touchdown.

Friday, November 7, the Eagles close their season when they play the Noodle team at McCaulley.

Gas Price Increase in Prospect After Hike

Texas oil company executives this week said they would not be surprised if recently granted freight rates cause upward adjustments in tank wagon prices for gasoline and other petroleum products in Texas.

Retail prices in Jones County and over the state might be upped in support of the boosts, local service station men declared.

Standard Oil Company of Indiana last week announced an increase of from one-tenth to one-fourth cent per gallon because of the freight boosts.

Enlistment Drops; Army Disturbed

Hamlin area people are informed this week by the Army General Staff that they are greatly disturbed by a further drop in enlistments. Although Chief of Staff Dwight D. Eisenhower and Army procurement officials have been concerned for sometime over failure to enlist 30,000 men a month, they felt that the situation might improve. This optimism was dispelled when reports from the field showed that enlistments totaled only 21,159 during the month of September. This was 1,967 short of the August figure.

"Wart", Zudy's Dog, Gets Rattlesnake Bitten Monday

"Wart", young hound belonging to Mrs. Zudy Osteen, was bitten by a rattlesnake Monday afternoon but was apparently going to live over the ordeal although the dog's face was badly swollen Tuesday morning.

Hero of the story is Mrs. W. L. Teague, Zudy's mother, who killed the snake. It had 10 rattlers.

A veterinarian could not be secured until Tuesday morning and it was too late for a serum to be of value but the animal doctor stated that if the dog had lived that long it would probably recover.

P. S.—Flash! Wart died Wednesday morning, 36 hours after being bitten. He seemed to be paralyzed before the end came, his mistress stated in a telephone call to The Herald.

Hamlin Woman Pulls 3,000 Pounds Cotton Weekly

Mrs. J. O. Priddy of Hamlin has been making a record this fall by pulling 3,000 pounds cotton weekly, according to A. A. Calloway, farmer.

Mr. Calloway states, "Believe it or not, we still have some people who are too busy making an honest living to take time off to complain about the high cost of living," (referring to Mrs. Priddy.)

"Mrs. Priddy has a chubby baby boy who plays in a slatted crib while she works and he seldom fails to greet her with a big smile when she comes to the wagon. Mr. Priddy is a painter and if he wields a paint brush as efficiently as his wife does a cotton sack, they should prosper," Calloway remarked.

Calloway also wished to acknowledge Grandmother Perry who seldom gathers less than 300 pounds per day and is 60 years of age.

Correction!

Due to an error, in last week's issue of The Herald Oleta Kite's name was omitted from the list of candidates for queen for the Hamlin High School. She represented the freshman class and her escort was Billy Wayne Gabriel. Sophomore candidate, Lavon Stewart, had for her escort, Tommy Latharn, rather than Gabriel, as was stated in the story.

Miss Kite ran an excellent race and The Herald is sorry her name was omitted from the story.

Pipers Score On Pass In Closing Stanza of Game

Tonight's Game to Decide Cellar Title

Munday's mighty Moguls rolled over the hapless Hamlin Pied Pipers 47 to 6 in the final home game for the locals last Friday night. Although the score at half-time was 20-0, it was in the third quarter that the Moguls thoroughly humiliated the lowly Pipers by running over three touchdowns in rapid-fire order. During the first half the two teams battled in a more interesting manner, although it didn't require a master observer to see which way the game was going. In the first half Munday rolled up 140 yards from scrimmage and the Pipers mustered 101 yards while the locals registered six first downs to the visitors five.

For the entire game Hamlin had 10 first downs and Munday had nine. Hamlin gained 191 yards from scrimmage, lost 18; Munday gained 318 and lost 25. Hamlin attempted nine passes, completed four for 74 yards and two intercepted; Munday attempted 10, completed two for 76 and had one intercepted.

Munday scored twice in the first quarter, the first touchdown coming after an exchange of fumbles which found Munday on possession on the Hamlin 46-yard stripe. From there Brown went 46 yards for a goal untouched, Bouldin added the extra point. Munday kicked off to Hamlin and after several nice gains the Pipers were forced to punt, the Moguls receiving on their 30, returning to the 39 yard stripe. From there they marched to the 26 from where Bouldin raced across the double-stripe and Swain went over for the extra point to put them in front 12 to 0. It required most of the second quarter for the Moguls to tally again, as they appeared to be toying with the Pipers. But after being penalized for an illegal forward pass they settled down and marched to the nine-yard stripe and to prove their versatility Bouldin passed to Montgomery standing in the end zone. Try for extra point was void because of a penalty against the Moguls and as a kickoff to Hamlin ended the half, Munday was leading 20-0.

The Moguls came back with plenty of hustle and drive to open the second half and before fans settled down they had registered a score. Swain scored twice in that quarter and Montgomery once to put them in the lead 41-0.

Both teams scored once in the final stanza, the Moguls final score coming from a 67-yard pass and worn-down Hamlin lads made their working against the reserves the lone score when Owens passed to Black from the 26-yard line.

This Friday night the Pipers journey to Albany, where the cellar championship will no doubt be settled. Haskell defeated the Albany Lions 20-6 last week and the Pied Pipers are considered favorites to cop their season's first victory.

H. C. Custard of Cleburne, WTCC president, will preside at the seven-hour windup session. It will be an all-business affair with an hour's time-out for the annual assembly luncheon at which C. W. Bailey, banker of Clarksville, Tennessee, will be the speaker. Bailey is the immediate past president of the American Bankers Association.

For Rural Life.

Policy planks in this year's ballot as presented and recommended for adoption by various WTCC commissions call for work for enhancement of Texas rural economy and life; for parity in freight rates with new comprehensive studies of commodity rates moving raw materials produced in volume; continuation of the West Texas industrialization campaign; security benefits for full-time workers in the area's local Chamber of Commerce and promotion of better relations with Mexico.

All planks have been closely gone over at WTCC's eight district referendum meetings held from October 14 through the 24th. Most extended discussion has been on plank two advocated by the Agricultural & Livestock Commission headed by W. R. Cusenberry of Sonora. This resolves that the regional chamber campaign for adoption of the state constitutional amendment submitted by the last Legislature which, if adopted at the November 1948 general election, will permanently abolish the state ad valorem tax for general revenue purposes and second, authorize counties by popular vote to levy property taxes up to 30 cents per $100 valuation for financing their own farm-to-market roads and flood control projects.

Soil and Water Conservation.

WTCC commission's proposal in plank two is that, if the amendment is adopted by Texas voters, the Legislature pass an enabling act forthrightly defining soil and water conservation as coming with flood control and authorizing the respective counties to set up tax supported funds earmarked in advance for determining and meeting their own distinctive problems in that broad field aimed at improving rural economy and life, as well as for lateral roads.

The commission contends that abolition of the ad valorem tax heretofore going into the state treasury could be diverted to provide the 132 counties of West Texas with not less than $4,000,000 annually for these purposes—all without establishing new political subdivisions and incurring added overhead administrative expense. Such a plan, says the commission, will provide faster, more effective and more economical methods for preserving and fully utilizing the country's soil and water resources.

Tie-In With Districts.

Conservation plank stresses that enabling legislation for putting the constitutional amendment into operation should require that each county's soil and water work tie-in with and carry out its share of any existing district conservation program to which it is committed, with its portion of the over-all fund to be spent within the county. Other safeguards call for a definite time limit on the entire program so as to assure relief from the tax after a given period; for explicit breaking down and allocation of the county's tax fund with a 75 per cent ceiling on any one project; and for providing good fiscal control to assure maximum farmer protection and benefits.

Enrollment of Latin-American students at the University of Texas continues on the upswing.

Soil Conservationists Have Big Goal To Shoot at For Grazing Capacities

Range land of Jones County that could adequately support 300 head of cows to the section would be as much of a monstrosity now as an Indian village sitting in the middle of your soil conservation district. Early history indicates that we once had this kind of grass land. Range abuse is certainly not an entirely recent thing although it is still going on. As pointed out by Morrison Liston, district conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service, it dates back to the period between 1870 and 1880 as indicated by some early history found in a Farmers' Bulletin No. 72. It was written in 1898 by H. L. Bentley who was in charge of the grass experiment station at Abilene. The following are excerpts from this bulletin and the descriptions pertain to an area 100 miles west and east and 200 miles north and south of Abilene:

"A stockman who traveled with a herd of cattle through San Saba, Tom Green and Taylor Counties in the summer of 1867, when that country was very sparsely settled, says that the grass was everywhere from one to three feet high, and that in places sometimes it was as high as a cow's back, not only on the bottom lands, but also in places on the drier uplands."

At that time there is little doubt that the ranges would have supported 300 head of cattle to the square mile. It was an ideal stock country. There was plenty of water.

Now, at the end of 30 years, almost every condition has changed. The carrying capacity of the range has steadily decreased until it is an exceptional property that can carry one head of stock to five acres. It is claimed that that was the common average 10 years ago. Today it requires at least 10 acres per head, and it is often considered not the best policy to put more than 50 cows to the section of 640 acres.

In the early days there was such an abundance of grasses of so great a variety that no one took time to note how many there were or which were the most valuable. There was more than enough to support every head of stock that could be crowded on the range. They were strictly first class; stock fattened and kept fat on them so what was the use of figuring on the varieties.

The idea that any of these grasses would ever become extinct, or that this golden period of fatness and plenty would come to an end, never entered the minds of those who were reaping the harvest. The experience of most of the stockmen of the Southwest has been alike. They have seen the range that originally might possibly have supported 500 cows to 640 acres decrease in capacity to maintain stock until 10 to 12 acres to the cow is not an exceptional case, but the general rule. The reasons for these changes are not difficult to discover.

Cottonseed Receipts Show Big Increase

Attention is called to Hamlin area cotton growers that the receipts of cottonseed at Texas mills doubled between July and August and then almost doubled again between August and September, a report to The Herald from the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research stated.

State's figure 1947 cotton crop, estimated for this year to be the largest since 1942, pushed mill receipts 131 per cent above the September 1946 figure. One dismal feature of the picture was the fact that cottonseed production failed to come up to the usual September standards, causing the seasonally-adjusted index to slump 50 per cent below August levels. The index stood at 64.1 in September compared to 128.1 in August using for the 100 per cent base 1935-1939.

Receipts at the State's mills rose to 212,866 tons, crushings advanced to total 93,534 tons, and stocks on hand at the end of the month doubled from September to August to reach 233,122 tons during the month.

Checked Up on Reaction.

The credit manager of a Seattle firm was having difficulty in making a collection from an account in Northern Washington. He finally wrote:

"Dear Mr. Jones: What would your neighbors think if I came to your town and repossessed your car?"

A week later he received his letter back, and under his signature was scrawled: "Sir, I took the above matter up with my neighbors and they think it would be a lousy trick."

World Cotton Yield Set at 26,100,000 Bales

Department of Agriculture Sunday night reported that estimates from various producing countries indicate this year's world cotton crop totaled 26,100,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight.

This is 21 per cent more than last year's exceptionally small crop of 21,500,000 bales. Nearly all the increase is accounted for by larger crops in the United States and the Soviet Union, in the northern hemisphere, and Brazil, Argentina and Peru in the southern, the department said.

The United States crop is estimated at 11,508,000 bales, an increase of 33 per cent over last year's small crop.

Plans for Proper Home Remodeling Offered by Agent

Jones County's Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Loretta Allan lists the following plans for home remodeling. "See how your plan checks with the following list," she suggests.

In general, have you planned—

1.—Enough rooms for your family's needs?

2.—Rooms neither too large nor too small?

3.—Good lighting and ventilation in all rooms?

4.—Good exposure and view for living and work areas?

5.—Doors and windows in every room well located for placing furniture?

6.—Outside entrances protected from weather?

Houses, like highways, have traffic problems. Are:

Entrances convenient to the drive? All rooms easily reached from the back door?

Work and living areas free from traffic?

Bedrooms and bath opening from a hall?

Are halls wide enough? Are all steps safe and easy to use?

Well planned kitchen and other work areas save time and energy. Have you provided for—

Work areas arranged to save steps? Elbow room for more than one worker?

Storage space for supplies and equipment where they are used?

A closet for work clothes? A place, other than the kitchen sink, where men can wash?

Since we all have to eat, is—

The dining area handy to the kitchen?

Seating space adequate for every one regularly served, and for company?

Storage space handy for dishes, silver and linens?

In living rooms, have you provided comfortable space, with equipment and storage, for reading, writing, studying, farm business, sewing, games, hobbies and entertainment?

We spend one-third of our lives sleeping. Have you made provision for—

Separate rooms for parents, boys and girls?

Not more than two persons to a room?

Space on first floor for aged or ill? Space for overnight guests?

Enough wall space and clearance around furniture?

Enough storage for clothing and bedding?

Bedrooms placed to get cooling summer night breezes?

Does your modern house include:

An adequate water supply? Sewage disposal?

Hot and cold running water in kitchen, bath and laundry?

Provision for heating that will keep your house warm?

Are you sure your house will have—

Good proportions and simple lines? The $64 question: Is the cost of remodeling less than for building a new house?

The following bulletins are available in the county home demonstration agent's office in the basement of the courthouse: B156, "Plan the Farmstead;" USDA No. 1749, "Modernizing Farm Houses;" and USDA No. 1738, "Farm House Plans."

Cottonseed Price Gains in Texas as Season Advances

Movement of cottonseed to crushing mills increased during the week as the proportion of ginnings increased, according to a report to The Herald by the Production and Marketing Administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Gins are current and picking is progressing as fast as labor will permit.

Seed prices again increased during the week at gins. The average price in Texas was $94.80 per ton f. o. b. gins as compared to $89.90 per ton during the preceding week.

Prices in Texas ranged from $85 to $100 per ton f. o. b. gins, with the higher prices reported in Northeast Texas towns. In Oklahoma the average price increased from $85.50 per ton to $88.80 f. o. b. gins. Prices in Oklahoma ranged from $75 to $100 per ton f. o. b. gins.

Cottonseed production will not be estimated until final ginnings for the season are released. However, if the ratio of lint to cottonseed should be the same as for the last five years, cottonseed production, based on the crop reporting board's forecast of October 8, would total about 4,669,000 tons. This would be an increase of about 33 per cent over production last year of 3,513,000 tons, but about nine per cent below the 10-year average production.

H. D. Smith New Gas Co. Manager Succeeds Braymer

H. D. Smith

H. D. Smith has been appointed manager of Lone Star Gas Company's Stamford district which includes Hamlin, as part of seven personnel changes announced by L. B. Denning Jr., of Dallas, operating manager for the general division of distribution, through M. L. Bird of Abilene, division superintendent. Smith comes from Electra where he has been district manager, succeeding W. M. (Bill) Braymer who has been named manager of the company's Abilene district. Braymer succeeds W. J. Deakins who has been appointed manager of the Ennis district to succeed H. L. St. John, retiring under the company's pension plan.

A veteran of the gas industry, Smith joined Lone Star in 1930 as an engineer at Brownwood. He was transferred to the meter department in Abilene in 1931, to Sweetwater as utility man in 1934, and to Electra as manager in 1938. He was with the State Highway Department prior to coming with the gas company.

Smith has served as a director of the Electra Chamber of Commerce, secretary of the Rotary Club and as vice-president of the Retail Merchants Association. He is a member of the Elks and the 14-Club of Brownwood.

Born and educated at Brownwood, he attended Daniel Baker College, Brownwood. Mrs. Smith is the former Oia Beryl McDonald and their son, William McDonald, is five.

City Office Back to New Surroundings

City offices have been moved back into their old location in the Dillingham Building from the temporary location in the ice plant office. New fixtures and office spaces have been built and the office is really attractive and a definite asset to the customers and casual visitors alike.

All work has now been completed on the remodeled building which the City of Hamlin sold to J. D. Dillingham of Abilene early last spring. The building now contains the ice plant, city offices, The Style Mart and has two apartments upstairs.

The modernistic building is indeed an added attraction and improvement to Hamlin's business section.

Grady Lackey spent the week-end in Houston with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Lackey.

Mrs. Vera Davis and daughters, Patsy and Peggy Jo moved to Dallas Saturday, where she will take a beauty course.

Farm Wage Rates Over Country at All-Time Highs

Jones County farmers were perturbed at increasing farm wage levels that threatened to trim their profits from crop yields.

Bureau of Agriculture Economics at Washington reported this week that farm wage rates rose to record levels on October in practically all regions of the country.

It said farm wage rates averaged $4.79 a day, with board, on October 1. This compared with $4.54 on July 1, and was more than four times the 1910-14 average rate of $1.16 a day.

Employment rose about two per cent on farms during the past year, the bureau said.

It attributed some of the wage rates increases to seasonal demand for harvest labor. It said part of the increase resulted from increases in farm commodity prices and the tendency of farm wages to follow industrial wage increases.

Sharp increases in hired workers were recorded in the South, where corn and rice harvests, cotton picking and peanut picking were in full swing.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brewer visited their daughter, Elma Rae Brewer, who is studying to be a nurse at San Angelo.

Wheat Grindings and Flour Production On Decline In Texas

August wheat grindings in Texas shaved nine per cent off July's total in a sharper decline than the seasonal pattern calls for, according to a report received by The Herald from the latest Bureau of the Census.

The monthly total, 4,327,000 bushels, exceeded year-ago grindings by 19 per cent, however. The July-to-August drop checked the advance of the Bureau's index, resulting in an 11 per cent fall to 177.7. Base of which was 1935-1939 as 100 per cent.

Wheat flour production slid to 1,885,000 sacks during August sinking nine per cent below the July

CARTER'S AFFLICTION
Carter placed a hand over

one eye and looked again. No doubt about it; that was a pretty girl sitting in the wagon in front of Doan's store, and her father was nowhere around.

The stage setting was perfect. Jerking his hat more firmly onto his head and at the same time digging his heels surreptitiously into his horse's flanks, Lige instantly found himself astride a local cyclone. But he knew his mount; and he was a T Diamond horse. "Uncle Wash Bryan had been building up the breed ever since importing the first head, and the brand, from Old Mexico over a quarter of a century before. And he and Lige put on a perfect show.

As they finally reined in before the girl's wagon, Lige noticed the sparkle of admiration in her eyes.

"Howdy do, ma'am! Is there anything I can do for you?" the T. Diamond trail boss asked as he courteously tipped his hat. His question was polite enough but that sparkle had encouraged him unreasonably, and he winked at her.

She stiffened immediately. "I would have you know, sir, that I am waiting here for my husband; and there is nothing I need from you! Furthermore, when I tell him of how you have insulted me—"

But Lige didn't hear the rest.

Whirling quickly he rode back to their camp. It's funny, he told himself, how much easier it is to deal with cattle than with people—especially with women! Even when the cattle were cantankerous.

Now take this herd of T Diamond stuff. He and young John Bryan with eight cowhands, were trailing 2,500 of them to Dodge City and aside from the routine problems, they hadn't been much trouble. But just one woman, now!

Lige had rejoined John Bryan at camp and told him of his woes when John suddenly nudged him and panted. "Is that your irate husband, coming yonder?"

Watching the approaching horseman, John chuckled as he wondered how Lige would squirm out of this one. Atoning a woman's honor could be deadly serious in the frontier country!

As the rider drew near, John noticed that his companion's right eye was twitching rhythmically. The stranger also noticed it as he angrily reined in before them and dismounted.

"This is your paint, I presume?" he asked Lige, nodding towards the horse Lige was rubbing down.

"Yes, yes, it's mine." Lige paused to answer, but his eye kept up its twitching.

The stranger hesitated, and then blurted, "does it do that way all the time?"

"Yes," and Lige's voice was sad. "It is an affliction; I've been troubled with it all my life," and he shook his head sorrowfully.

The stranger was silent, then impulsively thrust out his hand, "I'll say, old man, I'm sorry! My wife thought you were winking at her. I'll go tell her that she was mistaken."

As he rode out of earshot, John let out a whoop. "That's a good one. A fellow comes to shoot you up, and ends up by begging your pardon!"

First Payment on $55 Per Capita to Schools Received

Jones County schools last week received more than $25,000 as the 1947-48 school year's first per capita school aid apportionment, according to Everett Beaver, county superintendent of schools. The payment represented a $5-per-scholarship payment on a $55 apportionment projected for the school year.

State Department of Education officials declared Tuesday that the schools probably would receive more than the proposed $55 apportionment. The state is in good financial condition as far as school funds are concerned, and with rising costs of schooling, officials believe a higher payment can be made without hurting the fund.

Southwest Farm Products Decline; While Sheep and Cattle Sell Higher

Many Southwest farm products declined in value last week, though most sheep and cattle sold higher, the United States Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports to Herald readers.

Wheat prices fell sharply during the week and most other grains also suffered losses. Weakening factors included uncertainty concerning the possible price programs, European shipments, more favorable weather in the corn belt, and increased supplies of new corn. The No. 1 wheat closed Friday at $3.03½ per bushel at Texas common points.

Prices for feed ingredients followed the downward trend of grains. Alfalfa hay showed a slightly easier undertone this week, while prairie hay remained strong. Wool buying continued active in Texas and the Southwest at firm prices.

Southwest egg prices dropped mostly one to five cents per dozen last week. Hens lost a cent or two per pound but fryers and broilers sold firm to a little higher. Best mixed colored eggs brought 45 to 50 cents at Dallas and 48 to 55 cents at Fort Worth. Denver brought current receipt eggs at mostly 43½, and New Orleans at 53 1-3 cents.

Hog markets registered sharp declines of mostly $1 to $2.50 per 100 pounds for the week. Closing top prices for good and choice medium weight butchers stood at $25.50 at San Antonio, $26 at Fort Worth and Oklahoma City and $25.85 at Wichita.

Sheep and lambs gained mostly 25 to 75 cents, but lambs dropped 50 cents to $1 at Oklahoma City and Wichita. Medium and good lambs sold $18 to $21 at Oklahoma City and $20 to $21.50 at Fort Worth. San Antonio bought good to low choice lots at $19.25 to $20. Good and choice brought $22.75 to $23.25 at Wichita.

Southwest cattle closed the week generally steady to 50 cents higher compared to a week earlier, except at Oklahoma City losses ranged from 25 cents to $1, with cows and heifers losing most. Common and medium cows sold at $12 to $14.50 at Houston, while medium and good grades cashed at $15.50 to $16 at San Antonio, $13.25 to $16 at Fort Worth and $14 to $17 at Oklahoma City. Wichita brought good weighty cows at $16 to $16.50 and Denver paid $14.75 to $18.25 for common and good kinds.

Spot cotton markets saw another active week with large volume of sales. Prices declined mostly 50 cents per bale. Rains delayed harvesting in many sections.

Crop Conditions In Santa Fe Area Looking Average

Crop conditions in Jones County are among the best in the Santa Fe System area in Texas, according to the October 1 agricultural conditions bulletin released to The Herald this week.

Texas experienced a hot, dry summer which tapered off with showers late in August, followed by favorable and generally moist weather since. Rainfall in the northern part of the state was heavy; however, crop damage was small compared with the benefits to pastures, late crops and the fall planting season, the report continues.

The rains came too late to materially help the early portion of the cotton crop but checked premature opening of bolls, reduced shedding and gave new life to young plants. Picking again is in full swing and nearing completion in the more southern area. Last official estimate placed the crop at 3,150,000 bales.

Grain sorghums in North Texas are being combined for grain and forage feed, and much of the oat and wheat stubble land has been plowed for fall planting, in the meantime supporting considerable volunteer growth for pasture. Final yields of corn and grain sorghums are turning out somewhat better than expected.

While practically all of the wheat land has been worked, moisture has not been sufficient to germinate volunteer seed, and until this comes up so it can be killed, very little wheat swing will be done.

News Briefs From—Stonewall County

Aspermont Star advises Stonewall Countians not to jump on county officials if they think taxes are too high. Tax records were checked and Stonewall's tax is still 21. The increase came in state taxes. Memorial services were held at Peacock Baptist Church last Friday for Seaman Carroll McKenzie, whose body was the first to be returned home from foreign soil. Children of Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Baker surprised them recently with a big dinner on the occasion of their 54th wedding anniversary. Rule defeated Aspermont 6-0. Aspermont High School has released a basketball schedule that shows they are in a league with Old Glory, Leuders, Avoca, Hawley and Rule. After a let-down during cotton picking season, school attendance is back to normal at Peacock. Syl Godfrey of Peacock placed first with his gift in the annual fall 4-H Club show at Aspermont last Saturday. Old Glory girls defeated Avoca girls and the Avoca boys beat Old Glory boys in a basketball game.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Treadwell and Mr. and Mrs. A. Spencer and Jimmy visited Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Martin and son, Sid, at Ballinger Sunday afternoon.

On one occasion, Judge Roy Bean (the Law West of the Pecos) was to perform a marriage ceremony, the participants being members of the leading Langtry families. There were many guests and the rites were set for high noon, after which there was to be a feast. The license had to be issued in Del Rio, the county seat and sent by train.

But the train was late and after several hours had gone by an everyone was tremendously hungry, Bean announced he was going to proceed, which he did, concluding with these words:

"And now, by virtue of the authority invested in me by the Constitution and laws of Texas and the license coming in an No. 11, I hereby pronounce you man and wife."

When Jim Ferguson, then a political unknown, announced he was going to run for governor and would open his campaign in Blum, a political exploded, "Who in hades is Jim Ferguson and where in hades is Blum?"

In one of Senator Tom Connally's campaigns for re-election, he was accompanied by a number of newspaper correspondents, including Ed Rider of the Houston Chronicle. The Senator made the same speech four times a day but the newspapermen attended because something new might be added. But it was a good speech and Connally saw no reason to change an address that was effective.

The Senator avoided any reference to his opponent except for one oblique comment. The opponent, a Congressman, had left Washington and come back to Texas to begin his campaign while Congress was still in session. Connally declared: "My friends, had I consulted my own personal interests I would have returned to Texas and begun my campaign many weeks ago, but I remained at my post of duty, to which the voters had elected me until the last roll was called—until the last gavel sounded."

Rider was riding with the Senator's publicity man when there was a blowout and the car swayed wildly, a cliff on one side, a chasm on the other. With pale face, Ed turned to his companion and said, "Bill, I believe the last gavel has sounded."

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Culbertson and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Feagan were in Dallas Saturday to attend the SMU-Texas football game, which SMU won by a score of 14-13.

Mr. and Mrs. Tate May and Bert Angel attended the Baylor football game at Waco Saturday the homecoming celebration.

Mrs. J. B. Miller is recovering from an illness at the family home. She was brought home from the lone hospital Saturday after several days treatments.

Dr. J. F. Hocott has moved to the apartment at the home of W. W. Green and will be in his regular office when he can arrive in office.

"What kind of people live here? The last town we lived in everyone was so stuck-up and unfriendly," was the inquiry made to a filling station operator in a certain town. The local man replied, "Well, you will find them the same way here." Later another man considering moving to the same town asked, "How are the people who live here? The last place we resided the people were so nice and friendly." Promptly the filling station attendant assured the newcomer, "You will find people in this town the very same way." What was the difference? Of course, you can figure that out. It was the attitude of the newcomer. Be friendly and you will find you can easily soon feel at home and have friends.

Time for us to think of Christmas. Up to date we have joked about it and the time is fleeting past with the shopping days becoming fewer. Hamlin has a reputation for having a welllighted city during the Yuletide season. It would be a fine project for the different clubs to sponsor phases of the decoration program. Maybe prizes could be awarded the family having the most beautifully lighted yard, or tree in the window. Remember all during the war we sang that song, "When The Lights Go On Again All Over The World." Let's not forget to send packages to those war orphans and underprivileged children of foreign countries. Let's share our Christmas and we must do so now while there is still time for gifts to reach their destination before December 25!

Hallowe'en passed without any serious damage to property and we should be proud of our youngsters for such behavior. Of course, the windows of most business houses got soaped and many boys and girls made the rounds Saturday wanting the job of washing off the soap for pay. But innocent fun is not to be condemned. Hallowe'en comes but once a year and we should be glad our American children have the energy and sense of humor to enjoy such pranks. They tell us those children of some of the war-stricken countries are so listless from lack of the proper food that they don't feel like playing.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carmichael, new owners of the Ideal Steam Laundry, had a streak of bad luck in that a huge jar of bleach burst during the rain storm and ran under about $500 worth of their customer's clothing. They took it or the chain and replaced the articles ruined, without crying over the split milk (or rather bleach). They are really working at their new jobs and you can be certain such an incident will not happen again as the bleach jars are now safely placed so far from the clothes that it could not reach them no matter how fierce the storm.

Even Eleanor has sent her regrets that she cannot attend the wedding of Princess Elizabeth. She stated that her work with the UN conference would prevent her presence for the Royal wedding. As yet our invitation to the great event has not arrived. Such mail service!

Remember the article about the orchid seeds that the Agriculture Experiment Station in South America was offering to send to you for only 10 cents. Well, the address we placed in this column was incomplete and some letters have been returned but we now have the proper address if you wish to order. Send 10 cents to: Casilla Postal 270, Quito, Ecuador, South America.

P. S.—If you don't have a lot of patience better not bother to place such an order as it takes from three to five years to grow these fragile flowers. Might be a worthy endeavor to try your patience.

November 2-8 is National Future Homemakers of America Week. We salute this fine group of young women who are spending much of their time learning to be good homemakers. After all that is the profession that the majority of them will follow and it is a very important career, one that should be taken seriously. FHA members and your teacher, Mrs. Jimmy Simmons, we salute you and wish you the greatest success in your year's work.

Tuesday, November 11, will be observed as a holiday in Hamlin in memory of those who fell on the battlefields in World War I, II. Let's not forget those men who gave their lives to try to guarantee peace on earth. Their death was just as sacrificial as if the real purpose had been attained. We must continue to pay a fitting tribute each year. Let's not be too busy making a living to take time out to pause and honor the war dead.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Webb of Lamesa visited in the home of her mother, Mrs. Carrie Whitake during the weekend. Another daughter of Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Edith LaFleur of Los Angeles, California has also been here for a visit.

Winter Ailments Of Small Children Sereve in Winter

Seasonal health hazards for young children in Jones County are to be guarded against in the winter-time just as carefully as they are in the summer-time in the opinion of Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer. "Every mother is familiar with so-called summer complaints which affect small children, but certain winter diseases can be just as harmful and are just as likely to make their appearance unless proper precautions are used during the approaching season," Dr. Cox said this week in a release to The Herald.

In the group of winter diseases Dr. Cox included influenza, tonsillitis, pneumonia, bronchitis, asthma, and even diphtheria when a child has not had diphtheria immunization.

Any such disease affecting a child's respiratory or breathing system is apt to be very serious and all too often fatal. Pneumonia often develops from a neglected cold or may follow a severe case of measles or whooping cough. Bronchitis conditions may also prove to be an after-effect of such diseases and these respiratory ailments are much more difficult to combat successfully than the digestive ailments which are prevalent in the summer-time and known as summer complaints.

"These winter diseases are especially dangerous to babies and very young children," Dr. Cox stated. "Nearly all of them are spread from secretions of the nose and mouth. Children not in vigorous health are naturally more susceptible to these complaints, and the first line of defense against them is to build up the child's general health, as a power of resistance against disease," Dr. Cox advised. "The second step is to keep them under medical supervision, and the third is to make sure that they avoid contact with those who have coughs, colds or fevers."

Farmers Being Urged To Contact WAA For Equipment

Hamlin area farmers and others in the agricultural Southwest are being encouraged to contact the Customer Service Centers of the WAA for such limited farm equipment and supplies as are offered from time to time. Farm operators are urged to communicate with such centers in their territory regarding any wanted items on farms whether or not the equipment desired has been advertised, declared R. G. Berle, newly appointed agricultural representative of the Grand Prairie Zone office of the WAA.

"We are eager to serve our food producers with such equipment and supplies as are available or whenever they come into our surplus inventories," Berle stated. "And we will welcome correspondence or visits to these centers in order that individual farm needs might be checked against whatever items might be on hand for sale at the time," he concluded.

Mr. and Mrs. Onis Crawford and son visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Crawford at Stamford Sunday. His brother, James Crawford, was also there from Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wallace and daughters spent the weekend in San Angelo with her father, S. H. Locke.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mauldin left this week for Big Bear, California where they will visit her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Watkins. They will also visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mitchell, at San Simon, California. Mr. Mauldin, who recently sold his service station in Hamlin, does not have any definite plans for the future as yet, but may move to California.

Southwest Farm Products Decline; While Sheep and Cattle Sell Higher

Many Southwest farm products declined in value last week, though most sheep and cattle sold higher, the United States Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports to Herald readers.

Wheat prices fell sharply during the week and most other grains also suffered losses. Weakening factors included uncertainty concerning the possible price programs, European shipments, more favorable weather in the corn belt, and increased supplies of new corn. The No. 1 wheat closed Friday at $3.03½ per bushel at Texas common points.

Prices for feed ingredients followed the downward trend of grains. Alfalfa hay showed a slightly easier undertone this week, while prairie hay remained strong. Wool buying continued active in Texas and the Southwest at firm prices.

Southwest egg prices dropped mostly one to five cents per dozen last week. Hens lost a cent or two per pound but fryers and broilers sold firm to a little higher. Best naked colored eggs brought 45 to 50 cents at Dallas and 48 to 55 cents at Fort Worth. Denver current receipt eggs at mostly 43½, and New Orleans at 53 1-3 cents.

Hog markets registered sharp declines of mostly $1 to $2.50 per 100 pounds for the week. Closing top prices for good and choice medium weight butchers stood at $25.50 at San Antonio, $26 at Fort Worth and Oklahoma City and $25.85 at Wichita.

Sheep and lambs gained mostly 25 to 75 cents, but lambs dropped 50 cents to $1 at Oklahoma City and Wichita. Medium and good lambs sold $18 to $21 at Oklahoma City and $20 to $21.50 at Fort Worth. San Antonio bought good to low choice lots at $19.25 to $20. Good and choice brought $22.75 to $23.25 at Wichita.

Southwest cattle closed the week generally steady to 50 cents higher compared to a week earlier, except at Oklahoma City losses ranged from 25 cents to $1, with cows and heifers losing most. Common and medium cows sold at $12 to $14.50 at Houston, while medium and good grades cashed at $15.50 to $16 at San Antonio, $13.25 to $16 at Fort Worth and $14 to $17 at Oklahoma City. Wichita brought good weighty cows at $16 to $16.50 and Denver paid $14.75 to $18.25 for common and good kinds.

Spot cotton markets saw another active week with large volume of sales. Prices declined mostly 50 cents per bale. Rains delayed harvesting in many sections.

Crop Conditions In Santa Fe Area Looking Average

Crop conditions in Jones County are among the best in the Santa Fe System area in Texas, according to the October 1 agricultural conditions bulletin released to The Herald this week.

Texas experienced a hot, dry summer which tapered off with showers late in August, followed by favorable and generally moist weather since. Rainfall in the northern part of the state was heavy; however, crop damage was small compared with the benefits to pastures, late crops and the fall planting season, the report continues.

The rains came too late to materially help the early portion of the cotton crop but checked premature opening of bolls, reduced shedding and gave new life to young plants. Picking again is in full swing and nearing completion in the more southern area. Last official estimate placed the crop at 3,150,000 bales.

Grain sorghums in North Texas are being combined for grain and forage feed, and much of the oat and wheat stubble land has been plowed for fall planting, in the meantime supporting considerable volunteer growth for pasture. Final yields of corn and grain sorghums are turning out somewhat better than expected.

While practically all of the wheat land has been worked, moisture has not been sufficient to germinate volunteer seed, and until this comes up so it can be killed, very little wheat scwing will be done.

News Briefs From—Stonewall County

Aspermont Star advises Stonewall Countians not to jump on county officials if they think taxes are too high. Tax records were checked and Stonewall's tax is still $1. The increase came in state taxes. Memorial services were held at Peacock Baptist Church last Friday for Seaman Carroll McKenzie, whose body was the first to be returned home from foreign soil. Children of Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Baker surprised them recently with a big dinner on the occasion of their 54th wedding anniversary. Rule defeated Aspermont 6-0. Aspermont High school has released a basketball schedule that shows they are in a league with Old Glory, Leuders, Avoca, Hawley and Rule. After a let-down during cotton picking season, school attendance is back to normal at Peacock. Syl Godfrey of Peacock placed first with his gill in the annual fall 4-H Club show at Aspermont last Saturday. Old Glory girls defeated Avoca girls and the Avoca boys beat Old Glory boys in a basketball game.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Treadwell and Mr. and Mrs. A. Spencer and Jimmy visited Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Martin and son, Sid, at Ballinger Sunday afternoon.

On one occasion, Judge Roy Bean (the Law West of the Pecos) was to perform a marriage ceremony, the participants being members of leading Langtry families. There were many guests and the rites were set for high noon, after which there was to be a feast. The license had to be issued in Del Rio, the county seat and sent by train.

But the train was late and after several hours had gone by an everyone was tremendously hungry, Bean announced he was going to proceed, which he did, concluding with these words:

"And now, by virtue of the authority invested in me by the Constitution and laws of Texas and the license coming in an No. 11, I hereby pronounce you man and wife."

When Jim Ferguson, then a political unknown, announced he was going to run for governor and would open his campaign in Blum, a political exploded, "Who in hades is Jim Ferguson and where in hades is Blum?"

In one of Senator Tom Connally's campaigns for re-election, he was accompanied by a number of newspaper correspondents, including Ed Rider of the Houston Chronicle. The Senator made the same speech four times a day but the newspapermen attended because something new might be added. But it was a good speech and Connally saw no reason to change an address that was effective.

The Senator avoided any reference to his opponent except for one oblique comment. The opponent, a Congressman, had left Washington and come back to Texas to begin his campaign while Congress was still in session. Connally declaimed: "My friends, had I consulted my own personal interests I would have returned to Texas and begun my campaign many weeks ago, but I remained at my post of duty, to which the voters had elected me until the last roll was called—until the last gavel sounded."

Rider was riding with the Senator's publicity man when there was a blowout and the car swayed wildly, a cliff on one side, a chasm on the other. With pale face, Ed turned to his companion and said, "Bill, I believe the last gavel has sounded."

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Culbertson and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Feagan were in Dallas Saturday to attend the SMU-Texas football game, which SMU won by a score of 14-13.

Mr. and Mrs. Tate May and Bert Angel attended the Baylor football game at Waco Saturday the homecoming celebration.

Mrs. J. B. Miller is recovering from an illness at the family home. She was brought home from a lone hospital Saturday after several days treatments.

Dr. J. F. Hocott has moved the apartment at the home of W. W. Green and will be in the office regularly now until the holidays when he can give into office.

POT-SHOTS FROM McCAULLEY

By GEORGE DARDEN

Tom Price, McCauley night watchman for many years, is seriously ill in a hospital in Rotan. McCauley High School football team met their stiffest competition over at McMurry College, Abilene, last Friday when they played the Saint Joseph Academy of that city but the local boys managed to win by a score of 24 to 13. Thereby keeping their slate clean for the past two seasons undefeated and untied. The Abilene boys out-weighted our boys 15 pounds to the man, but still we won.

A surprise birthday party honoring Mrs. J. H. Brawer last Saturday was given in the home of Mrs.

George Darden with about 30 neighbors present. Mrs. Darden was assisted in serving punch and cake by Mrs. Laymon Hicks and Mrs. Lulan Maberry. Mrs. Brawer is a good—good neighbor and loved by all. Many lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Brawer at the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cooper of Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooper of Fort Worth and other relatives visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mayo in their new home north of town last Sunday.

The George Dardens visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Darden, at Girard last Saturday night and Sunday. Cotton is about all out in these parts and if weather permits most of the cotton will be in the bag this week.

Fisher County Fair was a great success according to all who attended. Many fine exhibits, including cattle, horses, hogs and sheep were shown besides a good rodeo.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Mason from Comanche are visitors in his mother's home, Mrs. Flora Mason.

About 26 guests gathered Sunday at the E. R. Rector home at Royston for a family reunion. Besides local relatives, Mrs. N. E. Porter, a sister from Como and Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Rector of Hermeligh were present.

Editor, Donald Bryant of The Herald, was a pleasant visitor in McCauley Monday afternoon.

Visiting in the W. B. Mayo home Sunday was Mrs. M. A. Connell from Lubbock and Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Dick of McCauley.

Sharman Houghton hands up a $5 check for the McCauley Church of Christ for the Cemetery Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lawlis, and family spent last week-end with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Linis Allison in Midland. Mrs. Allison accompanied them home for a visit.

Three basketball games were played at the Ed Mason Gymnasium Monday night. McCauley High School girls playing the exes and winning by a score of 18 to 14. Outside McCauley boys won over Plasterco and Anson by narrow margins.

About all we know this week is what we read in the papers and perhaps you have read them all. Still a lot of small scale wars going on in parts of the world. Congress is talking of big doings if there is a special session. Sugar has been turned wild loose. Women still are

Huge Moore Elevator Project Underway

Hero Dead of Two Wars to be Honored Tuesday

Grain Elevator Construction to Begin Monday

Construction of a large grain elevator of 150,000 bushel storage capacity will be started by the Moore Grain Company Monday with the Chalmers-Borton Contractors of Hutchinson, Kansas doing the work. Fred B. Moore Jr. will supervise the project for the grain company.

A cluster of six concrete and steel circular tanks surrounding other storage space, provides a total of 1723 bins and this part will reach 60 feet in height. The elevator belfry will extend another 30 feet. This elevator will provide farmers this area with storage space for wheat, maize and other grain crops. Chalmers-Borton firm specializes in this type of construction work. The problem facing Moore and the contractors at present is the securing of adequate housing for the workers, which will number about 25, with about four or five sleeping furnished apartments and the others desiring bedrooms. An advertisement by the Hamlin Chamber of Commerce is carried in this issue. The Herald asking for information for rooms or apartments. The new elevator will be located on property east of the Co-Operation between Stamford highway and the Santa Fe freight terminal roads.

McCaulley Team Continues Wins; Total Now 15

Those fighting McCaulley Eagles notched their winnings to 15 a total by knocking over the Jose Academy team, of Abilene, by a score of 24-13. The pass from Gibson to Fought reached in the Eagles first touchdown. Try for extra point was not good. A few minutes later, the Saints team scored on a long pass. The try for extra point was good. The Eagles behind their opponent for the first time this season with the half ending 76 favored the Academy.

In the third quarter, Saint Jose led on another long pass, notching the extra point. Gibson the kickoff and with good timing sped all the way to pay. Again the try for extra point void. In the fading minutes of the third quarter, Waldrop picked a blocked punt and went across goal line standing up. Try for extra point was blocked.

In the fourth quarter, the Eagles led the game by a pass from Edkins to J. Lawls, which resulted in a 40-yard race by Lawls to the goal line.

When the whistle blew ending the game, the Saint Jose team was on two-yard line threatening a day, November 7, the Eagles close their season when they the Noodle team at McCaulley

Gas Price Increase in Prospect After Hike

Texas oil company executives this week said they would not be surprised if recently granted freight rates cause upward adjustments in tank wagon prices for gasoline and other petroleum products in Texas. Retail prices in Jones County and over the state might be upped in support of the boosts, local service station men declared.

Standard Oil Company of Indiana last week announced an increase of from one-tenth to one-fourth cent per gallon because of the freight boosts.

Enlistment Drops; Army Disturbed

Hamlin area people are informed this week by the Army General Staff that they are greatly disturbed by a further drop in enlistments. Although Chief of Staff Dwight D. Eisenhower and Army procurement officials have been concerned for sometime over failure to enlist 30,000 men a month, they felt that the situation might improve. This optimism was dispelled when reports from the field showed that enlistments totaled only 21,159 during the month of September. This was 1,967 short of the August figure.

"Wart", Zudy's Dog, Gets Rattlesnake Bitten Monday

"Wart", young hound belonging to Mrs. Zudy Osteen, was bitten by a rattlesnake Monday afternoon but was apparently going to live over the ordeal although the dog's face was badly swollen Tuesday morning.

Hero of the story is Mrs. W. L. Teague, Zudy's mother, who killed the snake. It had 10 rattlers.

A veterinarian could not be secured until Tuesday morning and it was too late for a serum to be of value but the animal doctor stated that if the dog had lived that long it would probably recover.

P. S.—Flash! Wart died Wednesday morning, 36 hours after being bitten. He seemed to be paralyzed before the end came, his mistress stated in a telephone call to The Herald.

Hamlin Woman Pulls 3,000 Pounds Cotton Weekly

Mrs. J. O. Priddy of Hamlin has been making a record this fall by pulling 3,000 pounds cotton weekly, according to A. A. Calloway, farmer. Mr. Calloway states, "Believe it or not, we still have some people who are too busy making an honest living to take time off to complain about the high cost of living," (referring to Mrs. Priddy.)

"Mrs. Priddy has a chubby baby boy who plays in a slatted crib while she works and he seldom fails to greet her with a big smile when she comes to the wagon. Mr. Priddy is a painter and if he wields a paint brush as efficiently as his wife does a cotton sack, they should prosper," Calloway remarked.

Calloway also wished to acknowledge Grandmother Perry who seldom gathers less than 300 pounds per day and is 60 years of age.

Correction!

Due to an error, in last week's issue of The Herald Oleta Kite's name was omitted from the list of candidates for queen for the Hamlin High School. She represented the freshman class and her escort was Billy Wayne Gabriel. Sophomore candidate, Lavon Stewart, had for her escort, Tommy Latham, rather than Gabriel, as was stated in the story.

Miss Kite ran an excellent race and The Herald is sorry her name was omitted from the story.

Pipers Score On Pass In Closing Stanza of Game

Tonight's Game to Decide Cellar Title

Munday's mighty Moguls rolled over the hapless Hamlin Pied Pipers 47 to 6 in the final home game for the locals last Friday night. Although the score at half-time was 20-0, it was in the third quarter that the Moguls thoroughly humiliated the lowly Pipers by running over three touchdowns in rapid-fire order. During the first half the two teams battled in a more interesting manner, although it didn't require a master observer to see which way the game was going. In the first half Munday rolled up 140 yards from scrimmage and the Pipers mustered 101 yards while the locals registered six first downs to the visitors five.

For the entire game Hamlin had 10 first downs and Munday had nine. Hamlin gained 191 yards from scrimmage, lost 18; Munday gained 318 and lost 25. Hamlin attempted nine passes, completed four for 74 yards and two intercepted; Munday attempted 10, completed two for 76 and had one intercepted.

Munday scored twice in the first quarter, the first touchdown coming after an exchange of fumbles which found Munday on possession on the Hamlin 46-yard stripe. From there Brown went 46 yards for a goal untouched. Bouldin added the extra point. Munday kicked off to Hamlin and after several nice gains the Pipers were forced to punt, the Moguls receiving on their 30, returning to the 39 yard stripe. From there they marched to the 26 from where Bouldin raced across the double-stripe and Swain went over for the extra point to put them in front 12 to 0. It required most of the second quarter for the Moguls to tally again, as they appeared to be toying with the Pipers. But after being penalized for an illegal forward pass they settled down and marched to the nine-yard stripe and to prove their versatility Bouldin passed to Montgomery standing in the end zone. Try for extra point was void because of a penalty against the Moguls and as a kickoff to Hamlin ended the half, Munday was leading 20-0.

The Moguls came back with plenty of hustle and drive to open the second half and before fans settled down they had registered a score. Swain scored twice in that quarter and Montgomery once to put them in the lead 41-0.

Both teams scored once in the final stanza, the Moguls final score coming from a 67yard pass and worn-down Hamlin lads made their working against the reserves the lone score when Owens passed to Black from the 26-yard line.

This Friday night the Pipers journey to Albany, where the cellar championship will no doubt be settled. Haskell defeated the Albany Lions 20-6 last week and the Pied Pipers are considered favorites to cop their season's first victory.

Town Group Debates Proposed Policy And Program for West Texas C. of C.

convene in Abilene to register the final and binding vote on all the planks in this year's referendum ballot.

H. C. Custard of Cleburne, WTCC president, will preside at the seven-hour windup session. It will be an all-business affair with an hour's time-out for the annual assembly luncheon at which C. W. Bailey, banker of Clarksville, Tennessee, will be the speaker. Bailey is the immediate past president of the American Bankers Association.

For Rural Life.

Policy planks in this year's ballot as presented and recommended for adoption by various WTCC commissions call for work for enhancement of Texas rural economy and life; for parity in freight rates with new comprehensive studies of commodity rates moving raw materials produced in volume; continuation of the West Texas industrialization campaign; security benefits for full-time workers in the area's local Chamber of Commerce and promotion of better relations with Mexico.

All planks have been closely gone over at WTCC's eight district referendum meetings held from October 14 through the 24th. Most extended discussion has been on plank two advocated by the Agricultural & Livestock Commission headed by W. R. Cusenberry of Sonora. This resolves that the regional chamber campaign for adoption of the state constitutional amendment submitted by the last Legislature which, if adopted at the November 1948 general election, will permanently abolish the state ad valorem tax for general revenue purposes and second, authorize counties by popular vote to levy property taxes up to 30 cents per $100 valuation for financing their own farm-to-market roads and flood control projects.

Soil and Water Conservation.
WTCC commission's proposal in plank two is that, if the amendment is adopted by Texas voters, the Legislature pass an enabling act forthrightly defining soil and water conservation as coming with flood control and authorizing the respective counties to set up tax supported funds earmarked in advance for determining and meeting their own distinctive problems in that broad field aimed at improving rural economy and life, as well as for lateral roads.

The commission contends that abolition of the ad valorem tax heretofore going into the state treasury could be diverted to provide the 132 counties of West Texas with not less than $4,000,000 annually for these purposes—all without establishing new political subdivisions and incurring added overhead administrative expense. Such a plan, says the commission, will provide faster, more effective and more economical methods for preserving and fully utilizing the country's soil and water resources.

Tie-In With Districts.

Conservation plank stresses that enabling legislation for putting the constitutional amendment into operation should require that each county's soil and water work tie-in with and carry out its share of any existing district conservation program to which it is committed, with its portion of the over-all fund to be spent within the county. Other safeguards call for a definite time limit on the entire program so as to assure relief from the tax after a given period; for explicit breaking down and allocation of the county's tax fund with a 75 per cent ceiling on any one project; and for providing good fiscal control to assure maximum farmer protection and benefits.

Enrollment of Latin-American students at the University of Texas continues on the upswing.

Soil Conservationists Have Big Goal To Shoot at For Grazing Capacities

Range land of Jones County that could adequately support 300 head of cows to the section would be as much of a monstrosity now as an Indian village sitting in the middle of your soil conservation district. Early history indicates that we once had this kind of grass land. Range abuse is certainly not an entirely recent thing although it is still going on. As pointed out by Morrison Liston, district conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service, it dates back to the period between 1870 and 1880 as indicated by some early history found in a Farmers' Bulletin No. 72. It was written in 1898 by H. L. Bentley who was in charge of the grass experiment station at Abilene. The following are excerpts from this bulletin and the descriptions pertain to an area 100 miles west and east and 200 miles north and south of Abilene:

"A stockman who traveled with a herd of cattle through San Saba, Tom Green and Taylor Counties in the summer of 1867, when that country was very sparsely settled, says that the grass was everywhere from one to three feet high, and that in places sometimes it was as high as a cow's back, not only on the bottom lands, but also in places on the drier uplands."

At that time there is little doubt that the ranges would have supported 300 head of cattle to the square mile. It was an ideal stock country. There was plenty of water.

Now, at the end of 30 years, almost every condition has changed. The carrying capacity of the range has steadily decreased until it is an exceptional property that can carry one head of stock to five acres. It is claimed that that was the common average 10 years ago. Today it requires at least 10 acres per head, and it is often considered now the best policy to put more than 50 cows to the section of 640 acres.

In the early days there was such an abundance of grasses of so great a variety that no one took time to note how many there were or which were the most valuable. There was more than enough to support every head of stock that could be crowded on the range. They were strictly first class; stock fattened and kept fat on them so what was the use of figuring on the varieties.

The idea that any of these grasses would ever become extinct, or that this golden period of fatness and plenty would come to an end, never entered the minds of those who were reaping the harvest. The experience of most of the stockmen of the Southwest has been alike. They have seen the range that originally might possibly have supported 500 cows to 640 acres decrease in capacity to maintain stock until 10 to 12 acres to the cow is not an exceptional case, but the general rule. The reasons for these changes are not difficult to discover.

Cottonseed Receipts Show Big Increase

Attention is called to Hamlin area cotton growers that the receipts of cottonseed at Texas mills doubled between July and August and then almost doubled again between August and September, a report to The Herald from the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research stated.

State's figure 1947 cotton crop, estimated for this year to be the largest since 1942, pushed mill receipts 131 per cent above the September 1946 figure. One dismal feature of the picture was the fact that cottonseed production failed to come up to the usual September standards, causing the seasonally-adjusted index to slump 50 per cent below August levels. The index stood at 64.1 in September compared to 128.1 in August using for the 100 per cent base 1935-1939.

Receipts at the State's mills rose to 212,866 tons, crushings advanced to total 93,534 tons, and stocks on hand at the end of the month doubled from September to August to reach 233,122 tons during the month.

Checked Up on Reaction.

The credit manager of a Seattle firm was having difficulty in making a collection from an account in Northern Washington. He finally wrote:

"Dear Mr. Jones: What would your neighbors think if I came to your town and repossessed your car?"

A week later he received his letter back, and under his signature was scrawled: "Sir, I took the above matter up with my neighbors and they think it would be a lousy trick."

Department of Agriculture Sunday night reported that estimates from various producing countries indicate this year's world cotton crop totaled 26,100,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight.

This is 21 per cent more than last year's exceptionally small crop of 21,500,000 bales. Nearly all the increase is accounted for by larger crops in the United States and the Soviet Union, in the northern hemisphere, and Brazil, Argentina and Peru in the southern, the department said.

The United States crop is estimated at 11,508,000 bales, an increase of 33 per cent over last year's small crop.

Cottonseed Price Gains in Texas as Season Advances

Movement of cottonseed to crushing mills increased during the week as the proportion of ginnings increased, according to a report to The Herald by the Production and Marketing Administration of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Gins are current and picking is progressing as fast as labor will permit. Seed prices again increased during the week at gins. The average price in Texas was $94.80 per ton f. o. b. gins as compared to $89.90 per ton during the preceding week. Prices in Texas ranged from $85 to $100 per ton f. o. b. gins, with the higher prices reported in Northeast Texas towns. In Oklahoma the average price increased from $85.50 per ton to $88.80 f. o. b. gins. Prices in Oklahoma ranged from $75 to $100 per ton f. o. b. gins.

Cottonseed production will not be estimated until final ginnings for the season are released. However, if the ratio of lint to cottonseed should be the same as for the last five years, cottonseed production, based on the crop reporting board's forecast of October 8, would total about 4,669,000 tons. This would be an increase of about 33 per cent over production last year of 3,513,000 tons, but about nine per cent below the 10-year average production

H. D. Smith has been appointed manager of Lone Star Gas Company's Stamford, district which includes Hamlin, as part of seven personnel changes announced by L. B. Denning Jr., of Dallas, operating manager for the general division of distribution, through M. L. Bird of Abilene, division superintendent. Smith comes from Electra where he has been district manager, succeeding W. M. (Bill) Braymer who has been named manager of the company's Abilene district. Braymer succeeds W. J. City Office Back to New Surroundings

City offices have been moved back into their old location in the Dillingham Building from the temporary location in the ice plant office. New fixtures and office spaces have been built and the office is really attractive and a definite asset to the customers and casual visitors alike.

All work has now been completed on the remodeled building which the City of Hamlin sold to J. D. Dillingham of Abilene early last spring. The building now contains the ice plant, city offices, The Style Mart and has two apartments upstairs.

The modernistic building is indeed an added attraction and improvement to Hamlin's business section.

Farm Wage Rates Over Country at All-Time Highs

Jones County farmers were perturbed at increasing farm wage levels that threatened to trim their profits from crop yields.

Bureau of Agriculture Economics at Washington reported this week that farm wage rates rose to record levels on October in practically all regions of the country.

It said farm wage rates averaged $4.79 a day, with board, on October 1. This compared with $4.54 on July 1, and was more than four times the 1910-14 average rate of $1.16 a day.

Employment rose about two per cent on farms during the past year, the bureau said.

It attributed some of the wage rate increases to seasonal demand for harvest labor. It said part of the increase resulted from increases in farm commodity prices and the tendency of farm wages to follow industrial wage increases.

Sharp increases in hired workers were recorded in the South, where corn and rice harvests, cotton picking and peanut picking were in full swing.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brewer visited their daughter, Elma Rae Brewer, who is studying to be a nurse at San Angelo.

Wheat Grindings and Flour Production On Decline In Texas

August wheat grindings in Texas shaved nine per cent off July's total in a sharper decline than the seasonal pattern calls for, according to a report received by The Herald from the latest Bureau of the Census.

The monthly total, 4,327,000 bushels, exceeded year-ago grindings by 19 per cent, however. The July-to-August drop checked the advance of the Bureau's index, resulting in an 11 per cent fall to 177.7. Base of which was 1935-1939 as 100 per cent.

Wheat flour production slid to 1,885,000 sacks during August sinking nine per cent below the July

CARTER'S AFFLICTION

Carter placed a hand over

one eye and looked again. No doubt about it; that was a pretty girl sitting in the wagon in front of Doan's store, and her father was nowhere around.

The stage setting was perfect. Jerking his hat more firmly onto his head and at the same time digging his heels surreptitiously into his horse's flanks, Lige instantly found himself astride a local cyclone. But he knew his mount; and he was a T Diamond horse. "Uncle Wash Bryan had been building up the breed ever since importing the first head, and the brand, from Old Mexico over a quarter of a century before. And he and Lige put on a perfect show.

As they finally reined in before the girl's wagon, Lige noticed the sparkle of admiration in her eyes.

"Howdy do, ma'am! Is there anything I can do for you?" the T. Diamond trail boss asked as he courteously tipped his hat. His question was polite enough but that sparkle had encouraged him unreasonably, and he winked at her.

She stiffened immediately. "I would have you know, sir, that I am waiting here for my husband; and there is nothing I need from you! Furthermore, when I tell him of how you have insulted me—" But Lige didn't hear the rest.

Whirling quickly he rode back to their camp. It's funny, he told himself, how much easier it is to deal with cattle than with people—especially with women! Even when the cattle were cantankerous.

Now take this herd of T Diamond stuff. He and young John Bryan with eight cowhands, were trailing 2,500 of them to Dodge City and aside from the routine problems, they hadn't been much trouble. But just one woman, now!

Lige had rejoined John Bryan at camp and told him of his woes when John suddenly nudged him and pointed. "Is that your irate husband, coming yonder?"

Watching the approaching horseman, John chuckled as he wondered how Lige would squirm out of this one. Atoning a woman's honor could be deadly serious in the frontier country!

As the rider drew near, John noticed that his companion's right eye was twitching rhythmically. The stranger also noticed it as he angrily reined in before them and dismounted.

"This is your paint, I presume?" he asked Lige, nodding towards the horse Lige was rubbing down.

"Yes, yes, it's mine," Lige paused to answer, but his eye kept up its twitching.

The stranger hesitated, and then blurted, "does it do that way all the time?"

"Yes," and Lige's voice was sad. "It is an affliction; I've been troubled with it all my life," and he shook his head sorrowfully.

The stranger was silent, then impulsively thrust out his hand. "I'll say, old man, I'm sorry! My wife thought you were winking at her. I'll go tell her that she was mistaken."

Jeannine Johnston, Alfred C. Altum, W. T. Johnson, Mrs. Jo Anne Harbert, Bill Harbert, Virginia Brown, Leham G. Richardson, Elaine Kite, Glenn Lewis Adair, Donlay Williams, Victor F. Colborn, Marilyn Joy Agnew, Patsy Ruth Fletcher are the students attending the university from Hamlin the registrar reported.

Those from Sylvester enrolled for the term are: Tom Jeffrey, William C. Brewer, Ruth A. Josey.

Mrs. Tate May To Install TU Officers On November 7

Jones County Associational Training Union will meet with the Baptist Church at Tuxedo Friday evening, November 7, at which time Mrs. Tate May of Hamlin will be installing officer. Conferences will follow by department leaders as follows: Pastors training union directors, general officers, Mrs. W. T. Gambill, Stamford; Adult, Bonnie Smith, educational director of Hamlin First Baptist Church; Young People, Mrs. Jewel Austin, Stamford; Intermediate, Mrs. Doris Roughton, Leuders; Junior, Mrs. Fred Sides, Leuders and Elementary, Miss Bertie Agnew, Anson.

Workers in all Baptist churches of the association are urged to attend these conferences, including Mrs. Gambill, Jones County Associational Training Union director.

Mrs. Clyde Angel was brought Saturday from a Rotan hospital where she had been under treatment for four days.

Mrs. J. H. Burkett and Mary Beth Bryant spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moss, near Anson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Morton spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fielder, in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Zinn are at present living in Hamlin at the Model Hotel. He will have a part in building the large grain elevator for Moore Grain Company. About 20 other men are to be employed on this project, which will require several months.

First Payment on $55 Per Capita to Schools Received

Jones County schools last week received more than $25,000 as the 1947-48 school year's first per capita school aid apportionment, according to Everett Beaver, county superintendent of schools. The payment represented a $5-per-scholarship payment on a $55 apportionment projected for the school year.

State Department of Education officials declared Tuesday that the schools probably would receive more than the proposed $55 apportionment. The state is in good financial condition as far as school funds are concerned, and with rising costs of schooling, officials believe a higher payment can be made without hurting the fund.

Tom Prichard has been quite ill with rheumatism at the family home on Houston Street for about three weeks.

Southwest Farm Products Decline; While Sheep and Cattle Sell Higher

Many Southwest farm products declined in value last week, though most sheep and cattle sold higher, the United States Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports to Herald readers.

Wheat prices fell sharply during the week and most other grains also suffered losses. Weakening factors included uncertainty concerning the possible price programs, European shipments, more favorable weather in the corn belt, and increased supplies of new corn. The No. 1 wheat closed Friday at $3.03 1/4 per bushel at Texas common points.

Prices for feed ingredients followed the downward trend of grains. Alfalfa hay showed a slightly easier undertone this week, while prairie hay remained strong. Wool buying continued active in Texas and the Southwest at firm prices.

Southwest egg prices dropped mostly one to five cents per dozen last week. Hens lost a cent or two per pound but fryers and broilers sold firm to a little higher. Best mixed colored eggs brought 45 to 50 cents at Dallas and 48 to 55 cents at Fort Worth. Denver brought current receipt eggs at mostly 43 1/2, and New Orleans at 53 1-3 cents.

Hog markets registered sharp declines of mostly $1 to $2.50 per 100 pounds for the week. Closing top prices for good and choice medium weight hutchers stood at $25.50 at San Antonio, $26 at Fort Worth and Oklahoma City and $25.85 at Wichita.

Sheep and lambs gained mostly 25 to 75 cents, but lambs dropped 50 cents to $1 at Oklahoma City and Wichita. Medium and good lambs sold $18 to $21 at Oklahoma City and $20 to $21.50 at Fort Worth. San Antonio bought good to low choice lots at $19.25 to $20. Good and choice brought $22.75 to $23.25 at Wichita.

Southwest cattle closed the week generally steady to 50 cents higher compared to a week earlier, except at Oklahoma City losses ranged from 25 cents to $1, with cows and heifers losing most. Common and medium cows sold at $12 to $14.50 at Houston, while medium and good grades cashed at $15.50 to $16 at San Antonio, $13.25 to $16 at Fort Worth and $14 to $17 at Oklahoma City. Wichita brought good weighty cows at $16 to $16.50 and Denver paid $14.75 to $18.25 for common and good kinds.

Spot cotton markets saw another active week with large volume of sales. Prices declined mostly 50 cents per bale. Rains delayed harvesting in many sections.

Crop Conditions In Santa Fe Area Looking Average

Crop conditions in Jones County are among the best in the Santa Fe System area in Texas, according to the October 1 agricultural conditions bulletin released to The Herald this week.

Texas experienced a hot, dry summer which tapered off with showers late in August, followed by favorable and generally moist weather since. Rainfall in the northern part of the state was heavy; however, crop damage was small compared with the benefits to pastures, late crops and the fall planting season, the report continues.

The rains came too late to materially help the early portion of the cotton crop but checked premature opening of bolls, reduced shedding and gave new life to young plants. Picking again is in full swing and nearing completion in the more southern area. Last official estimate placed the crop at 3,150,000 bales.

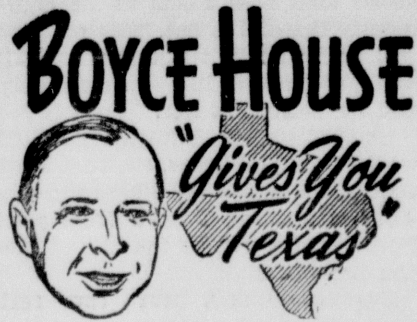

Grain sorghums in North Texas are being combined for grain and forage feed, and much of the oat and wheat stubble land has been plowed for fall planting, in the meantime supporting considerable volunteer growth for pasture. Final yields of corn and grain sorghums are turning out somewhat better than expected.

While practically all of the wheat land has been worked, moisture has not been sufficient to germinate volunteer seed, and until this comes up so it can be killed, very little wheat seeding will be done.

News Briefs From—Stonewall County

Aspermont Star advises Stonewall Countians not to jump on county officials if they think taxes are too high. Tax records were checked and Stonewall's tax is still $1. The increase came in state taxes. Memorial services were held at Peacock Baptist Church last Friday for Seaman Carroll McKenzie, whose body was the first to be returned home from foreign soil. Children of Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Baker surprised them recently with a big dinner on the occasion of their 54th wedding anniversary. Rule defeated Aspermont 6-9. Aspermont High School has released a basketball schedule that shows they are in a league with Old Glory, Leuders, Avoca, Hawley and Rule. After a let-down during cotton picking season, school attendance is back to normal at Peacock. Syl Godfrey of Peacock placed first with his gilt in the annual fall 4-H Club show at Aspermont last Saturday. Old Glory girls defeated Avoca girls and the Avoca boys beat Old Glory boys in a basketball game.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Treadwell and Mr. and Mrs. A. Spencer and Jimmy visited Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Martin and son, Sid, at Ballinger Sunday afternoon.

On one occasion, Judge Roy Bean (the Law West of the Pecos) was to perform a marriage ceremony, the participants being members of leading Langtry families. There were many guests and the rites were set for high noon, after which there was to be a feast. The license had to be issued in Del Rio, the county seat and sent by train.

But the train was late and after several hours had gone by an everyone was tremendously hungry, Bean announced he was going to proceed, which he did, concluding with these words:

"And now, by virtue of the authority invested in me by the Constitution and laws of Texas and the license coming in an No. 11, I hereby pronounce you man and wife."

When Jim Ferguson, then a political unknown, announced he was going to run for governor and would open his campaign in Blum, a political exploded, "Who in hades is Jim Ferguson and where in hades is Blum?"

In one of Senator Tom Connally's campaigns for re-election, he was accompanied by a number of newspaper correspondents, including Ed Rider of the Houston Chronicle. The Senator made the same speech four times a day but the newspapermen attended because something new might be added. But it was a good speech and Connally saw no reason to change an address that was effective.

The Senator avoided any reference to his opponent except for one oblique comment. The opponent, a Congressman, had left Washington and come back to Texas to begin his campaign while Congress was still in session. Connally declared: "My friends, had I consulted my own personal interests I would have returned to Texas and begun my campaign many weeks ago, but I remained at my post of duty, to which the voters had elected me until the last roll was called—until the last gavel sounded."

Rider was riding with the Senator's publicity man when there was a blowout and the car swayed wildly, a cliff on one side, a chasm on the other. With pale face, Ed turned to his companion and said, "Bill, I believe the last gavel has sounded."

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Culbertson and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Peagan were in Dallas Saturday to attend the SMU-Texas football game, which SMU won by a score of 14-13.

Mr. and Mrs. Tate May and Bert Angel attended the Baylor football game at Waco Saturday the homecoming celebration.

Mrs. J. B. Miller is recovering from an illness at the family home. She was brought home from a long hospital Saturday after several days treatments.

Dr. J. F. Hocott has moved the apartment at the home of W. W. Green and will be in his regular office until the home opens when he can move into his office.

'Tween Me and my Typewriter

By Jeanelle Bryant

"What kind of people live here? The last town we lived in everyone was so stuck-up and unfriendly," was the inquiry made to a filling station operator in a certain town. The local man replied, "Well, you will find them the same way here." Later another man considering moving to the same town asked, "How are the people who live here? The last place we resided the people were so nice and friendly." Promptly the filling station attendant assured the newcomer, "You will find people in this town the very same way."

What was the difference? Of course, you can figure that out. It was the attitude of the newcomer. Be friendly and you will find you can easily soon feel at home and have friends.

Time for us to think of Christmas.

Up to date we have joked about it and the time is fleeting past with the shopping days becoming fewer. Hamlin has a reputation for having a welllighted city during the Yuletide season. It would be a fine project for the different clubs to sponsor phases of the decoration program. Maybe prizes could be awarded the family having the most beautifully lighted yard, or tree in the window. Remember all during the war we sang that song, "When The Lights Go On Again All Over The World." Let's not forget to send packages to those war orphans and underprivileged children of foreign countries. Let's share our Christmas and we must do so now while there is still time for gifts to reach their destination before December 25!

Hallowe'en passed without any serious damage to property and we should be proud of our youngsters for such behavior. Of course, the windows of most business houses got soaped and many boys and girls made the rounds Saturday wanting the job of washing off the soap for pay. But innocent fun is not to be condemned. Hallowe'en comes but once a year and we should be glad our American children have the energy and sense of humor to enjoy such pranks. They tell us those children of some of the war-stricken countries are so listless from lack of the proper food that they don't feel like playing.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carmichael new owners of the Ideal Steam Laundry, had a streak of bad luck in that a huge jar of bleach burst during the rain storm and ran under about $500 worth of their customer's clothing. They took it or the chin and replaced the articles ruined, without crying over the split milk (or rather bleach). They are really working at their new jobs and you can be certain such an incident will not happen again as the bleach jars are now safely placed so far from the clothes that it could not reach them no matter how fierce the storm.

Even Eleanor has sent her regrets that she cannot attend the wedding of Princess Elizabeth. She stated that her work with the UN conference would prevent her presence for the Royal wedding.

As yet our invitation to the great event has not arrived. Such mail service!

Remember the article about the orchid seeds that the Agriculture Experiment Station in South America was offering to send to you for only 10 cents. Well, the address we placed in this column was incomplete and some letters have been returned but we now have the proper address if you wish to order. Send 10 cents to: Casilla Postal 220, Quito, Ecuador, South America.

P. S.—If you don't have a lot of patience better not bother to place such an order as it takes from three to five years to grow these fragile flowers. Might be a worthy endeavor or to try your patience.

November 2-8 is National Future Homemakers of America Week. We salute this fine group of young women who are spending much of their time learning to be good homemakers. After all that is the profession that the majority of them will follow and it is a very important career, one that should be taken seriously. FHA members and your teacher, Mrs. Jimmy Simmons, we salute you and wish you the greatest success in your year's work.

Tuesday, November 11, will be observed as a holiday in Hamlin in memory of those who fell on the battlefields in World War I, II. Let's not forget those men who gave their lives to try to guarantee peace on earth. Their death was just as sacrificial as if the real purpose had been attained. We must continue to pay a fitting tribute each year. Let's not be too busy making a living to take time out to pause and honor the war dead.

Winter Ailments Of Small Children Severe in Winter

Seasonal health hazards for young children in Jones County are to be guarded against in the winter-time just as carefully as they are in the summer-time in the opinion of Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer.

"Every mother is familiar with so-called summer complaints which affect small children, but certain winter diseases can be just as harmful and are just as likely to make their appearance unless proper precautions are used during the approaching season," Dr. Cox said this week in a release to The Herald.

In the group of winter diseases Dr. Cox included influenza, tonsillitis, pneumonia, bronchitis, asthma, and even diphtheria when a child has not had diphtheria immunization.

Any such disease affecting a child's respiratory or breathing system is apt to be very serious and all too often fatal. Pneumonia often develops from a neglected cold or may follow a severe case of measles or whooping cough. Bronchitis conditions may also prove to be an after-effect of such diseases and these respiratory ailments are much more difficult to combat successfully than the digestive ailments which are prevalent in the summer-time and known as summer complaints.

"These winter diseases are especially dangerous to babies and very young children," Dr. Cox stated. "Nearly all of them are spread from secretions of the nose and mouth. Children not in vigorous health are naturally more susceptible to these complaints, and the first line of defense against them is to build up the child's general health, as a power of resistance against disease," Dr. Cox advised. "The second step is to keep them under medical supervision, and the third is to make sure that they avoid contact with those who have coughs, colds or fevers."

Farmers Being Urged To Contact WAA For Equipment

Hamlin area farmers and others in the agricultural Southwest are being encouraged to contact the Customer Service Centers of the WAA for such limited farm equipment and supplies as are offered from time to time. Farm operators are urged to communicate with such centers in their territory regarding any wanted items on farms whether or not the equipment desired has been advertised, declared R. G. Berle, newly appointed agricultural representative of the Grand Prairie Zone office of the WAA.

"We are eager to serve our food producers with such equipment and supplies as are available or whenever they come into our surplus inventories," Berle stated. "And we will welcome correspondence or visits to these centers in order that individual farm needs might be checked against whatever items might be on hand for sale at the time," he concluded.

Mr. and Mrs. Onis Crawford and son visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Crawford at Stamford Sunday. His brother, James Crawford, was also there from Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wallace and daughters spent the weekend in San Angelo with her father, S. H. Locke.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mauldin left this week for Big Bear, California where they will visit her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Watkins. They will also visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mitchell, at San Simon, California. Mr. Mauldin, who recently sold his service station in Hamlin, does not have any definite plans for the future as yet, but may move to California.

Southwest Farm Products Decline; While Sheep and Cattle Sell Higher

Many Southwest farm products declined in value last week, though most sheep and cattle sold higher, the United States Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports to Herald readers.

Wheat prices fell sharply during the week and most other grains also suffered losses. Weakening factors included uncertainty concerning the possible price programs, European shipments, more favorable weather in the corn belt, and increased supplies of new corn. The No. 1 wheat closed Friday at $3.03 1/2 per bushel at Texas common points.

Prices for feed ingredients followed the downward trend of grains. Alfalfa hay showed a slightly easier undertone this week, while prairie hay remained strong. Wool buying continued active in Texas and the Southwest at firm prices.

Southwest egg prices dropped mostly one to five cents per dozen last week. Hens lost a cent or two per pound but fryers and broilers sold firm to a little higher. Best mixed colored eggs brought 45 to 50 cents at Dallas and 48 to 55 cents at Fort Worth. Denver brought current receipt eggs at mostly 43 1/2, and New Orleans at 53 1-3 cents.

Hog markets registered sharp declines of mostly $1 to $2.50 per 100 pounds for the week. Closing top prices for good and choice medium weight butchers stood at $25.50 at San Antonio, $26 at Fort Worth and Oklahoma City and $25.85 at Wichita.

Sheep and lambs gained mostly 25 to 75 cents, but lambs dropped 50 cents to $1 at Oklahoma City and Wichita. Medium and good lambs sold $18 to $21 at Oklahoma City and $20 to $21.50 at Fort Worth. San Antonio bought good to low choice lots at $19.25 to $20. Good and choice brought $22.75 to $23.25 at Wichita.

Southwest cattle closed the week generally steady to 50 cents higher compared to a week earlier, except at Oklahoma City losses ranged from 25 cents to $1, with cows and heifers losing most. Common and medium cows sold at $12 to $14.50 at Houston, while medium and good grades cashed at $15.50 to $16 at San Antonio, $13.25 to $16 at Fort Worth and $14 to $17 at Oklahoma City. Wichita brought good weighty cows at $16 to $16.50 and Denver paid $14.75 to $18.25 for common and good kinds.

Spot cotton markets saw another active week with large volume of sales. Prices declined mostly 50 cents per bale. Rains delayed harvesting in many sections.

Crop Conditions In Santa Fe Area Looking Average

Crop conditions in Jones County are among the best in the Santa Fe System area in Texas, according to the October 1 agricultural conditions bulletin released to The Herald this week.

Texas experienced a hot, dry summer which tapered off with showers late in August, followed by favorable and generally moist weather since. Rainfall in the northern part of the state was heavy; however, crop damage was small compared with the benefits to pastures, late crops and the fall planting season, the report continues.

The rains came too late to materially help the early portion of the cotton crop but checked premature opening of bolls, reduced shedding and gave new life to young plants. Picking again is in full swing and nearing completion in the more southern area. Last official estimate placed the crop at 3,150,000 bales.

Grain sorghums in North Texas are being combined for grain and forage feed, and much of the oat and wheat stubble land has been plowed for fall planting, in the meantime supporting considerable volunteer growth for pasture. Final yields of corn and grain sorghums are turning out somewhat better than expected.

While practically all of the wheat land has been worked, moisture has not been sufficient to germinate volunteer seed, and until this comes up so it can be killed, very little wheat swing will be done.

"VOLATILITY CONTROLLED" to give you POWER, PICK-UP and PEP!

By Jeanelle Bryant

"What kind of people live here? The last town we lived in everyone was so stuck-up and unfriendly," was the inquiry made to a filling station operator in a certain town. The local man replied, "Well, you will find them the same way here." Later another man considering moving to the same town asked, "How are the people who live here? The last place we resided the people were so nice and friendly." Promptly the filling station attendant assured the newcomer, "You will find people in this town the very same way." What was the difference? Of course, you can figure that out. It was the attitude of the newcomer. Be friendly and you will find you can easily soon feel at home and have friends.

Time for us to think of Christmas. Up to date we have joked about it and the time is fleeting past with the shopping days becoming fewer. Hamlin has a reputation for having a welllighted city during the Yuletide season. It would be a fine project for the different clubs to sponsor phases of the decoration program. Maybe prizes could be awarded the family having the most beautifully lighted yard, or tree in the window. Remember all during the war we sang that song, "When The Lights Go On Again All Over The World." Let's not forget to send packages to those war orphans and underprivileged children of foreign countries. Let's share our Christmas and we must do so now while there is still time for gifts to reach their destination before December 25!

Hallowe'en passed without any serious damage to property and we should be proud of our youngsters for such behavior. Of course, the windows of most business houses got soaped and many boys and girls made the rounds Saturday wanting the job of washing off the soap for pay. But innocent fun is not to be condemned. Hallowe'en comes but once a year and we should be glad our American children have the energy and sense of humor to enjoy such pranks. They tell us these children of some of the war-stricken countries are so listless from lack of the proper food that they don't feel like playing.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carmichael new owners of the Ideal Steam Laundry, had a streak of bad luck in that a huge jar of bleach burst during the rain storm and ran under about $500 worth of their customer's clothing. They took it or the chin and replaced the articles ruined, without crying over the spilt milk (or rather bleach). They are really working at their new jobs and you can be certain such an incident will not happen again as the bleach jars are now safely placed so far from the clothes that it could not reach them no matter how fierce the storm.

Even Eleanor has sent her regrets that she cannot attend the wedding of Princess Elizabeth. She stated that her work with the UN conference would prevent her presence for the Royal wedding.

As yet our invitation to the great event has not arrived. Such mail service!

Remember the article about the orchid seeds that the Agriculture Experiment Station in South America was offering to send to you for only 10 cents. Well, the address we placed in this column was incomplete and some letters have been returned but we now have the proper address if you wish to order. Send 10 cents to: Casilla Postal 270, Quito, Ecuador, South America.

P. S.—If you don't have a lot of patience better not bother to place such an order as it takes from three to five years to grow these fragile flowers. Might be a worthy endeavor to try your patience.

November 2-8 is National Future Homemakers of America Week. We salute this fine group of young women who are spending much of their time learning to be good homemakers. After all that is the profession that the majority of them will follow and it is a very important career, one that should be taken seriously. FHA members and your teacher, Mrs. Jimmy Simmons, we salute you and wish you the greatest success in your year's work.

Tuesday, November 11, will be observed as a holiday in Hamlin in memory of those who fell on the battlefields in World War I, II. Let's not forget those men who gave their lives to try to guarantee peace on earth. Their death was just as sacrificial as if the real purpose had been attained. We must continue to pay a fitting tribute each year. Let's not be too busy making a living to take time out to pause and honor the war dead.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Webb of Lamesa visited in the home of her mother, Mrs. Carrie Whitaker during the weekend. Another daughter of Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Edith LaFleur of Los Angeles, California has also been here for a visit.

Winter Ailments Of Small Children Sereve in Winter

Seasonal health hazards for young children in Jones County are to be guarded against in the winter-time just as carefully as they are in the summer-time in the opinion of Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer. "Every mother is familiar with so-called summer complaints which affect small children, but certain winter diseases can be just as harmful and are just as likely to make their appearance unless proper precautions are used during the approaching season," Dr. Cox said this week in a release to The Herald.

In the group of winter diseases Dr. Cox included influenza, tonsillitis, pneumonia, bronchitis, asthma, and even diphtheria when a child has not had diphtheria immunization.

Any such disease affecting a child's respiratory or breathing system is apt to be very serious and all too often fatal. Pneumonia often develops from a neglected cold or may follow a severe case of measles or whooping cough. Bronchitis conditions may also prove to be an after-effect of such diseases and these respiratory ailments are much more difficult to combat successfully than the digestive ailments which are prevalent in the summer-time and known as summer complaints.

"These winter diseases are especially dangerous to babies and very young children," Dr. Cox stated. "Nearly all of them are spread from secretions of the nose and mouth. Children not in vigorous health are naturally more susceptible to these complaints, and the first line of defense against them is to build up the child's general health, as a power of resistance against disease," Dr. Cox advised. "The second step is to keep them under medical supervision, and the third is to make sure that they avoid contact with those who have coughs, colds or fevers."

Farmers Being Urged To Contact WAA For Equipment

Hamlin area farmers and others in the agricultural Southwest are being encouraged to contact the Customer Service Centers of the WAA for such limited farm equipment and supplies as are offered from time to time. Farm operators are urged to communicate with such centers in their territory regarding any wanted items on farms whether or not the equipment desired has been advertised, declared R. G. Berle, newly appointed agricultural representative of the Grand Prairie Zone office of the WAA.

"We are eager to serve our food producers with such equipment and supplies as are available or whenever they come into our surplus inventories," Berle stated. "And we will welcome correspondence or visits to these centers in order that individual farm needs might be checked against whatever items might be on hand for sale at the time," he concluded.

Mr. and Mrs. Onis Crawford and son visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Crawford at Stamford Sunday. His brother, James Crawford, was also there from Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wallace and daughters spent the weekend in San Angelo with her father, S. H. Locke.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mauldin left this week for Big Bear, California where they will visit her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Watkins. They will also visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Mitchell, at San Simon, California. Mr. Mauldin, who recently sold his service station in Hamlin, does not have any definite plans for the future as yet, but may move to California.

POT-SHOTS FROM McCAULLEY

By GEORGE DARDEN

Tom Price, McCaulley night watchman for many years, is seriously ill in a hospital in Rotan.

McCaulley High School football team met their stiffest competition over at McMurry College, Abilene, last Friday when they played the Saint Joseph Academy of that city but the local boys managed to win

by a score of 24 to 13. Thereby keeping their slate clean for the past two seasons undefeated and untied. The Abilene boys out-weighted our boys 15 pounds to the man, but still we won.

A surprise birthday party honoring Mrs. J. H. Brawer last Saturday was given in the home of Mrs.

George Darden with about 30 neighbors present. Mrs. Darden was assisted in serving punch and cake by Mrs. Laymon Hicks and Mrs. Lulan Maberry. Mrs. Brawer is a good—good neighbor and loved by all. Many lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Brawer at the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cooper of Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooper of Fort Worth and other relatives visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mayo in their new home north of town last Sunday.

The George Dardens visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Darden, at Girard last Saturday night and Sunday.

Cotton is about all out in these parts and if weather permits most of the cotton will be in the bag this week.

Fisher County Fair was a great success according to all who attended. Many fine exhibits, including cattle, horses, hogs and sheep were shown besides a good rodeo.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Mason from Comanche are visitors in his mother's home, Mrs. Flora Mason.

About 26 guests gathered Sunday at the E. R. Rector home at Royston for a family reunion. Besides local relatives, Mrs. N. E. Porter, a sister from Comomo and Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Rector of Hermeligh were present.

Editor, Donald Bryant of The Herald, was a pleasant visitor in McCaulley Monday afternoon.

Visiting in the W. B. Mayo home Sunday was Mrs. M. A. Connell from Lubbock and Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Dick of McCaulley.

Sherman Houghton hands up a $5 check for the McCaulley Church of Christ for the Cemetery Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lawlis, and family spent last week-end with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Linis Allison in Midland. Mrs. Allison accompanied them home for a visit.

Three basketball games were played at the Ed Mason Gymnasium Monday night. McCaulley High School girls playing the exes and winning by a score of 18 to 14. Outside McCaulley boys won over Plasterco and Anson by narrow margins.

About all we know this week is what we read in the papers and perhaps you have read them all. Still a lot of small scale wars going on in parts of the world. Congress is talking of big doings if there is a special session. Sugar has been turned wild loose. Women still are

How women and girls
may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardul is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic,
it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion,* thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.
Try Cardul. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.
